He should furnish other particulars such as medical certificates, wage particulars, fitness certificates, and proof of having paid the compensation as per the rules in vogue in the due course without delay.
- 14.0 LIABILITY FOR DAMAGE TO WORKS AND PLANTS:
- 14.1 The contractor during the progress of the work shall take every reasonable, proper, timely and useful precaution against accident or injury to the workmen from any cause and shall remain answerable and liable for all the accidents or injuries thereto which until the same, or be occasioned by the acts of omissions of the contractor or his workmen or his representatives and all losses and damages to the works as aforesaid, shall be made in the most complete and substantial manner by and at the sole cost of the contractor and to the reasonable satisfaction of the Engineer. Should such loss or damage happen to units of works or plant or materials falling outside the scope of this contract and due to the lapses of the contractor, these shall be replaced or compensated for by the contractor to the satisfaction of the Engineer.
- 14.2 In the case of loss or damage to any portion of the work occasioned by the causes, the same shall if required by the purchaser, be made good by the contractor in like manner but at the cost of the purchaser at a price to be agreed between the contractor and the purchaser and the purchaser shall pay to the contractor the contract value of the portion of the work so lost or damaged or any balance of such contract value remaining unpaid as the case may be.
- 14.3 Until the work shall be or deemed to be taken over as aforesaid, the contractor shall also be liable for and shall indemnify the purchaser in respect of all damage or injury to any person or to any property of the purchaser or other occasioned by the act of the contractor or his workmen or his representatives or by defective design, work or materials but not due to cause beyond his reasonable control.
- 14.4 Provided that the contractor shall not be eligible under the contract for any loss of profit or loss of contracts or any claims made against the purchaser not already provided for in the contract, not for any damage or injury caused by or arising from the acts of the purchaser or of others (save as to damage by fire, as hereinafter provided) due to the circumstances over which the contractor has not control nor shall his total liability for loss, damage or injury exceed the total value of the contract.
